

The citizens and elected officials of Wisconsin are better at determining what no-call regulations we should have than is the federal government. We have decided we want as strict a law as possible. Say "no" to the Consumer Bankers Association" and leave our law alone!